The Rider on the white horse, leads the countless army.
 Man and beast cannot contend, His blood has made us free.
 Despair has lost its foothold. Evil's overwhelmed.
 Jesus Christ has paid our price and "victory" we yell.

 Day to day, arise fears when, destructive forces dawn,
C G D
 With Bravery remind the family, God's already won!
C Em D
 Spirit, will You walk with us for God has paid the price

 Then we'll all join hands in the victory, victory of Christ.
